Dear Sanjay,

Sub: Sports education for PE Teachers through e-Khel Pathshala.

I am writing this in connection with the digital sports education initiative under the Khelo India Scheme called 'e-Khel Pathshala', which is aimed at enhancing the knowledge of PE Teachers/Coaches and promoting quality sports education across various facets such as physical education, community coaching, sports specific skills, sports science, etc.

- The e-Khel Pathshala program consists of four course levels delivered through a state-of-the-art online learning management system. The learners shall be able to undertake the courses in a self-paced manner and continue with their professional development and improve their teaching methodologies considering the needs of a modern sporting landscape and creating more dynamic and effective learning environment in sports education.
- The learners shall have access to content developed in consultation with academic institutions, subject matter experts and knowledge partners. The learners will receive guidance from sports experts and certification upon successful completion of courses at each level.
- In this regard, to enable educators to fully utilize the program and digital resources, it is requested to encourage maximum participation of PE Teachers from different Schools across the country to join the e-Khel Pathshala.
- Education Boards and Institutions may kindly intimate PE Teachers to register through the link: <https://ekhelpathshala.kheloindia.gov.in/homepagesai>
